

- DAA team members presented the project during the De-a Arhitectura Association Annual Assembly in December 2022, to 60 members of the organization (architects and teachers)
- Vera Marin, Monica Muresanu and Oana Paval (Palimpsest Cities team members) together with Mina Sava (President of De-a Arhitectura Association) have presented the Palimpsest Cities project during their presentation in the Design for Inclusivity Panel at UIA World Congress 2023. The authors briefly presented it in the article as well – Empowering Teenagers Through Built Environment Education, published in the Design for Inclusivity Volume at Springer Nature.
- Oana Paval and Monica Muresanu briefly presented the project at the Hub-In - City as a Classroom Summerschool (Oraşul ca sală de clasă), in Braşov, Romania, where highschool students participated alongside with Furniture Design College students participated and they envisioned public spaces for youths in the city center of Braşov for four public squares inside the old town limits
- Monica Muresanu disseminated Palimpsest Cities Project at the Street Delivery Festival that took place between 15 – 17 September 2023
- DAA disseminated the Palimpsest Cities Project during Archi Fest – the architecture festival that had its first edition this year and was organized by UAUIM & ARCUB.